Welcome to The Building Fund Quarterly News

Happy New Year! I hope that you are all doing well and enjoying the end of winter! The Building Fund has exciting news to share as we move forward with our partnerships and the building of the community center at the Young Apostles International School in Ghana. As we move forward with our new projects we hope that you will consider making a donation to The Building Fund. Donations of all sizes help us do our work better and we hope that you will consider making a donation this season.

Best,
Jessyca Dudley, Founder

The Building Fund Awarded Google Grant

The Building Fund is happy to announce that it has been awarded a Google Grant providing Google AdWords services for the non-profit. The Google Grants program supports organizations sharing Google's philosophy of community service to help the world in areas such as science and technology, education, global public health, the environment, youth advocacy, and the arts. Join Our Blog Team

The Building Fund is seeking volunteers to join its newly formed Blog Team. The team will work to bring content and fresh ideas to the TBF Blog, while also increasing the visibility and viability of the Blog.

An ideal candidate for the Blog Team will have previous experience working with non-profits and an interest in international education. The position is unpaid, however, after successful tenure on the team individuals will have gained valuable skills and contacts, as well as a familiarity with the workings of a non-profit. TBF is also willing to write recommendations for future internships and jobs.

Responsibilities will include weekly postings that fully communicate current events and news in international education with a focus on Ghana and primary education.

You need:

- a strong interest in international education
- strong blog-style writing skills
- a reliable computer and internet connection
- strong internet research skills

Please submit:

- Your name
- Your contact information
- Your previous experience
- What you do full time
- 2 sample posts that you think should appear on The Building Fund Blog

Please email:

info@thebuildingfund.org

Please use subject line: Blog Team
